University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Conference

The 15th annual University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Conference will be held at UW-Whitewater. The theme is "Women in the World of the 21st Century." In addition to a broad spectrum of panels, the conference will feature a keynote address titled "Reaching toward Global Feminism" by Janice Monk of the Southwest Institute for Research on Women at the University of Arizona.

Registration

To register in advance, use the attached form. On site registration will take place in the University Center. Early registration fees apply for applications received by September 28, 1990.

Lodging

UW-Whitewater has made some residence hall rooms available for this conference. The room rates are $17.00 single occupancy and $9.50 double occupancy. Please check the appropriate box on the registration form if you are interested in residence hall lodging. A list of off-campus accommodations is also available.

Parking

Parking is critical in and around UW-Whitewater. With advance registration you will receive a free parking permit. Late registrants may either park in a metered stall, on the public street, or obtain a temporary permit at the University Police Building located on Starin Road. One day parking permits are $1, and two day permits are $2. No permit is required for weekends.

Conference Planning Committee

Members of the Planning Committee at UW-Whitewater are: Audrey Roberts and Andrea Nye, co-chairs, Rebecca Hogan, Andrea Musher, Mary Pinkerton and George Savage.

Members of the System Advisory Committee for the conference are: Sue Searing, Susan Kahn and Jacqueline Ross, UW System; Betsy Draine, UW-Madison; Anne Statham, UW-Parkside
